News Culled for The Progress

by our own correspondents.

PHEASANT FORKS.

—The Bracey Company have had agents out here buying up steers for the British Market.

—The crops look well and except some late grain are nearly all cut. The root crop is very abundant.

—We have had a fairly good year with our cheese factory, shipping our cheese to British Columbia we have secured good prices.

—Rev. J. Toze had been out here conducting Sacramental services, preaching three times, twice at Pheasant Forks and once at the Rev. Mr. Willis'. The people are always pleased to see and hear a stranger and when they know of his coming turn out in large numbers.

GRENfell.

—A deputation from Waterloo county have been visiting our town during the last few days. They were driven out to see the good crops in the surrounding country by Mr. N. Polson.

—Mr. J. F. Middlemies of Summerville, and his bride, arrived from the East a week ago. We are glad to see that gentleman back again, as he is highly esteemed around this district and we wish him much happiness on this auspicious occasion.

—R. P. Richardson, M. L. A., and Mrs.
Richardson left for the Eastern Provinces.
Mr. Richardson goes to Toronto to visit friends, while Mr. Richardson goes on to Montreal to attend the General Conference of the Methodist church, to which he is one of the delegates.

SALT COATS.

—A statute labor and fire district will probably be organized in the vicinity of Salt coats very soon.

—Two very young settlers arrived on Sunday evening and are domiciled with Messrs.
Hallett and Lander.

—Chief Engineer Dancer, of the M. & N.
W., is in town with his staff, the train for the extension of the road has arrived.

—Sergeant Richards, N. W. M. P., lacks no zeal in a conscientious discharge of his duties. We have to thank him for the hasty departure of an undesirable visitor who has been notified to leave town on to-morrow's train.

—Messrs. Blake, Eakin and Keesington have viewed all the Crofters farms in competition for the Marquis of Lathom's prizes.
The prizes will be awarded on their decision at the fair of the Stirling Agricultural Society on Thursday, October 9th.

—One F. A. C. Robinson, a teacher in the Manitoba school system, has been notified of that district for two months wages and release from his engagement. The agreement with the trustees was for one year at the rate of $45 per month, no reference being made to terms of payment. The trustees, Burke and Sandhu, sustained his claim. O'Keefe for plaintiff.

—A fine lot of fellows those samples of Ontario farmers that Waterloo county sent us. Tanton, Celi and Saxon they; Tanton, Celi and Saxon we in this district, and we have unanimously decided to absorb all that superior population that Waterloo county produces in the next half century, and more, too, if these jolly fellows be fair samples of what Waterloo can produce.

—The Yorkton Agricultural society's prize list is in. The first hundred and eighty four dollars and seventy five cents are offered in prizes. The society has distinguished itself by offering an aggregate of $30 in prizes for thoroughbred cattle of all kinds and $24 in prizes for grade cattle. This will surely encourage the breeding of well-bred stock in the district. The fair will be held at Yorkton on October 2nd.

BANFE.

—On Sabbath last Rev. Dr. King, of Manitoba College, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church. In the evening the Bishop of the diocese conducted English church service in the U. P. R. hall.

—The Canadian National Park is looking particularly lovely this summer. The moons are entirely free from smoke and appear at their best. The weather is simply perfect. The days are pleasantly warm, while the nights are beautifully cool. This we have had a greater number of visitors than in any previous year, and we have no doubt that as the attractions of "the Park" become more widely known, thousands of people would resort thither.

—Messrs. Chislett, Petty, Whitmore, Griffith, and others "knights of the pen" spent a part of this week in the "Park" and spoke of it as being life to the utmost measure. Had Rusdy continued to act as adviser to new comers who wish to dwell in the immediate knowledge of health. J. H.
McNay, who is selling off stock, purposing giving his entire time to his business in Canada, is a popular fellow teacher. Mr. Gilmore, has returned from Moose Jaw, where he spent his vacation, and will resume his duties on Sept. 1st. Mr. W. has been west on a prospecting trip. Our old town-man, Hugh H. and, as a Bull prospecting

EDMONTON.

From The Bulletin.

—Dr. J. D. Lafferty has been appointed physician for the Calgary & Edmonton railway.

—Mrs. Thos. Henderson of Fraser avenue has beautiful climbing rose in full bloom.
It is grown in the open garden.

—Sunflowers over a foot in diameter on stocks on seven feet high are growing in H. S. Young's garden at the H. B. fort.

—J. Knowles has a number of tobacco plants growing in his garden with leaves over two feet long. They have not been injured by frost.

—At the session of the provincial Synod of Rupert's land a new diocese of Selkirk was formed out of the present diocese of Mackenzie, covering the part of the British Territory to the west of the Rocky Mountains, bounded on the north by the Arctic Ocean, on the east by the Rocky Mountains, on the south by the 49th parallel of latitude, and on the west by the 114th meridian of the west longitude, containing an estimated area of 200,000 square miles. This is the Canadian Yukon district.

—Mr. Dracoll, who is exploring for tie timber for Calgary & Edmonton railway, arrived on Tuesday evening from Calgary with D. McLeod. The proceeds go towards the tie required for the road from Red Deer to Edmonton along that part of the line this winter if suitable timber can be found. Mr. Dracoll came in from Calgary in our days and will make an examination of the timber on his return trip.

LETHBRIDGE.

—Capt and Mrs. Neal are preparing a program for a concert to be given next week at the barracks. The proceeds go towards the beautifying and seating of the Methodist church.

—Recently a very special attack was made on several of the hotels and saloons by two of the Police force. Being guilty of selling liquor, no less than four were fined $100 and costs before Capt. Drane, J. P.

RACING WITH WOLVES.

Many a thrilling tale has been told by travelers of a race with wolves across the frozen steppes of Russia. Sometimes only the picked horses of the highest breed are found to tell the tale. In our own country thousands are engaged in a life and death race against the wolf consumption. The most weapons with which to fight the wolf, is Dr. Fowler's Golden Medical Discovery. This remedy has cured myriads of cases when all other medicines and doctors had failed. It is the greatest blood-purifier and cleanser, of strength known to the world.
For all forms of scrofulous affections and consumption is one of them, it is unequalled as a remedy.

—The Qu'Appelle, Long Lake & Saskatchewan railway was completed to Prince Albert last week. The coal sheds, round houses, etc., at Prince Albert will be finished by the 10th inst, and then all the contractors and outfits will leave for the Calgary & Edmonton road. It has not yet been decided when the C. P. R. will assume the management of the Long Lake railway.
It is probable that when they formally take it over, a public demonstration will be held at Prince Albert, to include an excursion from Regina.

STICK TO THE RIGHT.

Right actions spring from right principles.
In case of diarrhoea, dysentery, cramps, colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, etc., the right remedy is Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, an unfailing cure—made on the principle that nature's remedies are best. Never travel without it.

—The By-law to raise the sum of $10,000 for waterworks and fire protection appliances for Moosejaw was defeated on Saturday by a vote of 18 for, and 26 against the By-law.

Mr. Sedgewick, Deputy Minister of Justice is on a visit to Manitoba and the Northwest or official business.

UNEASABLE AGONY.

For three days I suffered severely from summer complaint, nothing gave me relief and I kept getting worse until the pain was almost unbearable, but after I had taken the first dose of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, I found great relief and it did not fail to cure me. Mr. T. J. Jones, Wilkes, Ont.

A BASHY NIGHT.

Mr. Reuben Knight of Morris, Manitoba, that he was troubled with a rash and over his body which was cured with less than a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters.
He highly recommends it as a blood purifier of the greatest efficacy.

A MOSSIE STORY.

I have used your Burdock Blood Bitters and find them everything to me. I had disrupted with head aches and had apoplexy, but after a few days use of it, I felt stronger, could eat and sleep and felt nothing but a pleasant taste. W. H. Stagg, Moose, Minn.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

—H. R. H. the Duke of Edinburgh, speaking at the Mansion House, London, said:
"Since I first went to sea a marked change has taken place in the character of the man-of-war's man, he is far more sober and thrifty than he was."

—The Minister of Public Instruction in New South Wales has decided to place a copy of Dr. Richardson's work on "Drink and Strong Drink" in the hands of every head teacher in the public schools. Teachers will be required to impart to pupils instructions on the effects of alcohol.

—It is said that a number of years ago a Boston firm of four young men were rated in the mercantile register as "A 1." One of them consulted the record, and found written at the end of it, "But they all drink." He reported the fact to his partners, and they all thought it a good joke.
But to-day two are dead, another is a drunkard, and the fourth is living on charitable aid.

—It is a notable fact that Robert Rae, the Veteran secretary of the Temperance Alliance in England, has the honor of having called on Dr. Benjamin Ward Richardson, the great expounder of science and alcohol.
It was at Robert Rae's request, and under influences brought to bear by him that those famous experiments were made extending over twenty years, which have been the entirely wedge for the new science concerning the relations of man and alcohol.— Union Signal.

—The question was put to the householders in thirteen cities and towns in Scotland, including Edinburgh, Glasgow and Aberdeen, —"Are you in favor of the prohibition of all liquors for the common sale of intoxicating liquors?" 81,610 householders answered "Yes," and 34,503 "No." In fifty-four small towns and villages in Scotland this question was put to every household—"Are you in favor of the people around you having the power to prohibit the liquor traffic by their votes, should they wish to do so?" 71,408 householders answered "Yes," and only 5577 "No."

—There is a good story told of Cyrus, who, when a youth, undertook one day to be a conqueror at the table of his grandfather, Cambyses. It was the duty of this officer to taste the liquor before it was presented to the King. Cyrus, without performing this ceremony, delivered the cup in a very graceful manner to his grandfather. The King observed the omission, which he imputed to thoughtlessness. "No," replied Cyrus, "I was afraid to drink, for not long since, at an entertainment which you gave, I observed that the lords of your court, after drinking of it, became noisy and quarrelsome. I, then, your son, seemed to have forgotten that you were a king." What a reproach! Drink is no respecter of persons. It drags down like the young, the old, the rich, the poor, and even kings!

—In 1857 Horace Greeley said in the New York Tribune: "For our own part we are opposed to legalizing the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors for medical, mechanical or any other purpose. There is no need of it and great harm in it. That alcohol may be used in various contingencies, we do not dispute; for ascetic, opium, and other poisons are so, and it is not probable that this single member of the family should have no good and whatever. Let alcohol—pure, unadulterated alcohol—be manufactured and sold without a license. Let doctors and others use it as they see fit, but this undisciplined poison no one would drink; and we would resist all pampering with, cod-ding it up and disguising it so that the ignorant, the simple, the victims of depraved appetite shall be tempted to imbibe it when they would reject the naked poison. All such winking of eyes for the feet of the military is indefensible, is demagogic, and ought to be prohibited by law."

—The solicitor for the plaintiffs in the town of Colongue vs. the regents of Victoria university has received instructions to appeal from the judgment of Justice MacMahon delivered in the long vacation, so far as it is against the plaintiffs.

A laborer named Brailley was killed by the falling in of a sewer on the 6th.

Fifteen new cases of cholera, and eleven deaths occurred on the 7th, in the city of Valencia. The disease is decreasing in the province of Valencia and elsewhere in Spain.

A LETTER FROM EMBROIDER.

"I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and I think it the best remedy for summer complaint. It has done a great deal of good to myself and children." Yours truly,

MRS. WM. WHITELY, Emerson, Mass.

The editor of THE PROGRESS is seriously ill this week, which will account for the absence of editorial matter, especially comment on the Regina Journal's revelation respecting the Northwest Government Library.

THE BULWARK OF A NATION.

In all parts of the world the farmer has been unduly imposed upon and especially has this been the case in Europe and all eastern countries. In ancient times he enjoyed no liberty and was a slave; in the middle ages a serf, and in this nineteenth century he is a slave to monopolies and combines. No part of the community has done as much for the common advancement of commerce as farmers, for they have furnished the raw material for the manufacturing institutions, provided the myriad population of the earth with food, and supplied the state with sturdy sons who have subdued the forests of continents and by the sweat of their brow have made the earth one vast garden. The farmer sustains the national credit of his country and defends its liberties when endangered. He is vigorous in body, strong in character, striking in individuality, loves his home, massive in common sense and fertile in resources. But if the farmers of America do not combine to protect their interests against the aggressive policy of monopolies and combines they will surely meet as ignominious a fate as did the tillers of the soil in former times. The necessity for combination and co-operation is becoming more apparent every day to the farmer, and the deep concern he is beginning to manifest in questions which involve his interests is a hopeful sign that he will no longer submit to be imposed upon and robbed of the profits of his labor.—Canadian Nation.

THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF MINORITIES.

"What is a minority?" The chosen heroes of the earth have been in a minority. There is not a social, political or religious privilege that you enjoy to-day that was not bought for you by the blood and tears and patient suffering of the minority. It is the minority that have vindicated humanity in every struggle. In a minority that have stood in the van of every moral conflict, and achieved all that is noble in the history of the world. You will find that each generation has been always busy in gathering up the scattered ashes of the martyred heroes of the past to deposit them in the golden urn of a nation's history.—Union Signal.

The only time a woman that was once named in Moore's History, was "killed out" by the Temperance women of the place. "When the season was started," says a citizen, "the women were started, the women formed in relays and went and took their beating to the saloons. Of course that knocked business better than a knee. It was not long before that saloon had to be closed, and since that time no man has ever had the nerve to start another."

THE NORTH-WEST GOVERNMENT LIBRARY.—A REVELATION.

Early in the summer a news item appeared in Winnipeg and Territorial papers stating that Lieutenant-Governor Royal was making extensive additions to the North-west Government Library. Later a representative of the JOURNAL, in showing a visiting friend the sights of the capital dropped in to the library room at the government buildings. Inquiry was made of the attendant as to the location of the new books, and tier after tier of nicely bound and newly labelled volumes were pointed out. A glance at them was a revelation. The scribe almost mechanically drew forth note-book and Dixon, and proceeded to jot down titles. The Lieutenant-Governor's secretary dropped in and finding out the titles were being taken for publication, suggested that before this was done the Lieutenant-Governor's permission be asked. Upon second thought this was considered the wise course.

A letter was accordingly written to His Honor, and the following reply received:
"Lieutenant-Governor's Office,
"Regina, N. W. T., 16th June, 1890.
"Sir,—I am directed by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 10th inst., requesting the privilege of visiting the North-West Government Library with a view to secure for publication a list of the books recently purchased, and also asking who are at liberty to visit and use the library for reference."
"In reply I am to express His Honor's regret at being unable to accord you the privilege requested. The Library is at present only in course of formation, and until it can be considered completed, and a catalogue made, will not be open to the public."

"I have the honor to be, Sir,
"Your obedient servant,
"R. B. GORDON,
"Secretary to Lieutenant-Governor."

In 1886 the Editor of the JOURNAL, enquired of Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney's secretary, who was at liberty to visit the North-West Government Library, and was given to understand that it was free to the public as a reference library, but that books were not to be taken away without special permission, a permission usually accorded only to members of the North-West Council, officials of the Court, etc. Upon further enquiry we find this to be the impression generally held respecting the privileges of the Library.

What then is the explanation of the above letter written by instruction of Lieutenant-Governor Royal? The character of the newly added books may give the clue. These examined were published by D. & J. Soder & Co., New York, a leading Roman Catholic publishing house. Here are a few sample titles:

- "The Catholic Priesthood."
- "A Sister's Story."
- "The Vatican Council and Its Definitions." Two volumes.
- "The Convert, or Leaves from My Experience."
- "United Irishmen." Four volumes.
- "The Life of Saint Elizabeth."
- "Apologia Pro Vita Sua," by Cardinal Newman.
- "The Irish Race."
- "Matilda of Canossa."
- "Strange Memories and Extraordinary Conversations."
- "Langard's History of England,"—a Roman Catholic Authority, etc.

Here we have two clearly defined grievances.

1st. Lieutenant-Governor Royal is using his position to pack the North West Government Library with doctrinal and class books, and expending the public funds for this purpose. This objection is not raised because the books are Roman Catholic, the grievance would be quite as great were they Methodist, Presbyterian, or controversial Protestant in the general sense. The objections, they are class and denominational books, and will be comparatively useless for years. When the library is so small, and books on questions of government, science, agriculture, etc. are so badly needed to assist our legislators and people in the development of this new country, to spend the small fund available for library purposes, as the Lieutenant-Governor has done, is the most glaring malfeasance of office.

2nd. A library purchased with the public money is "not open to the public." It is close to the press for fear of exposure. We are given to understand it will not be open to the public "until it can be completed." Who ever heard of a public library being completed. The publication of authorities on all question are constantly on the increase, and the latest must be added. A collection of books that could be catalogued in two months by the most ordinary clerk, has engaged the services of a librarian for about four months at $75 per month, but it cannot be opened to the public because not catalogued.

This is the way things are being run by the economists who object to responsible government. But you ask, where are the Advisory Council, have they no voice in these expenditures? The first Council resigned because they could not hold themselves responsible for the Lieutenant-Governor's executive acts. The present Council have a vote of want-of-confidence of the Legislature standing against them, but hold office in defiance of the people's representatives, and by so doing make such a conduct of affairs possible. They assembled yesterday after several months absence, transacted all their business in ONE DAY and are away again. Hardly time to vote yea on all the executive acts one would think, but they may have lumped them.

Reader, keep these things in remembrance, the Dominion and local elections are not far away.—The Regina Journal.

In the Wrong Shop.
An Irishman who had been here but a short time was roaming through our streets regardless of locality, and stumbled upon Beckman street, in which, between Kasseu and William, there were a number of lawyers' offices, among which there was one in a basement. This son of the "old soil," who was bent on some enterprise of great pith and moment, observing this office and fancying that something might be procured there commensurate with his ambition and finances, went down the steps to the office. On entering he saw one of our noble profession seated at a desk, on the land of which was one law book, obsolete and borrowed from a friend, and a bundle of papers relating to a bygone case, and which were thus placed to improve the clients when they came, but who were accumulating only in the mind's eye. The lawyer, hearing the footfall of the newcomer, bowed himself with the papers, in the anxious hope that at last something had come to him which would enlarge his finances.

The Irishman, who was evidently disappointed at the small show of merchandise and quite taken aback, said:
"Arrah, what do you keep for sale here?"
Upon which our lawyer, regarding at being taken for a seller of small wares, impulsively, and looking savagely at the impudent intruder, answered:
"Blackhead!"
To which, quick as a flash, came the response:
"Pon me now, then, you must be doing a brisk business, for there's only one left!"
New York Herald.

A Question of Heredity.
A little boy was often upbraid by his father for lying. He usually took it as a matter of course, but on one occasion the punishment seemed to him to be excessive. After it was over he stood before his father in a thoughtful way, which attracted his father's attention.
"My son," said the father, "what are you thinking about?"
"Father," said the son, "when you was a little boy did you use to tell lies?"
"No, my son; when I was a little boy I did not tell lies."
"Father," returned the son, "when mother was a little girl did she use to tell lies?"
"No, my son," replied the father, "when your mother was a little girl she did not tell lies. But why do you ask me these questions?"
"Well," said the little fellow, drawing a long sigh, "it is the most mysterious thing in the world to me that a father who never told lies when he was a little boy and a mother who never told lies when she was a little girl should have a boy who tells as many lies as I do!"
New York Herald.

Educational Item.

Professor—Gentlemen, I am now describing the resemblance of certain types of ape and the human family, and I have a right to expect that you will look directly at me.—Tues. Stirling.

Excusable Ignorance.
READING, Dec. 4.
To the Editor of the Inquirer: Will you please tell me in your paper what Anna Dickinson's age is?
Miss Dickinson was born in Philadelphia Oct. 28, 1842. We do not know the lady's age.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Severe Shock.
A drunk came from the parlor, and the mother rushed into the room in great agitation.
"What is my daughter doing?" she exclaimed.
"She has just come from New York. She was so excited!"
"The excitement," mamma said the young doctor said, faintly, "But it was a painful shock. He said 'hippopotamus' instead of 'hippopotamus'!"

A Determined to Trade.

Dealer—I ain't had a blessed inquiry today.—Judge.

An Important Question.
"Yes, I saw that account of the searoom who made an accession from Honolulu and fell into the sea to be devoured by sharks," replied the man in the plaid ulster, "and it forcibly reminded me of my own adventure on the Pacific coast."
Being urged to give us the story in all its details, he hesitatingly consented, and said: "In the year 1890 I made an excursion from San Francisco. The upper current of air kept me to sea, as in this case. We had no parachutes in those days, but the balloon was inflated for only a short trip. When ten miles at sea it began to descend, and where do you suppose I landed?"
"In the water, of course," replied the man from Milwaukee.
"But I didn't. I gently descended on the deck of a large ship, which had been dismasted in a storm and afterward abandoned by her crew. She was loaded with a cargo worth $600,000, and I sailed her into port and got $175,000 salvage as my share."
"You did! You say she was dismasted?"
"Yes, sir."
"Then how did you sail her in?"
"Do you doubt my word, sir?"
"Oh, no; but I want the particulars."
"Well, sir, I sailed her in, as I said before, and that's enough. Any one who wants any particulars will be considered as doubting my veracity, and it is needless to add that the man who doubts my veracity!"
Here he took from his pocket a large, long knife, tried the edge on his thumb nail, and, after a glance around, returned it to its sheath. No further particulars were asked for, and the subject of conversation was changed to other pastures.—New York Sun.
